The Baptist Missionary and Educational Union will hold its second quarterly meeting Friday, June 7, at Zion Baptist Church, Rev. J. Keil, pastor. As this church is just outside the city, we invite all to come and join us in this afternoon and evening outing. The meeting will open at 3 o'clock and also at 8 o'clock p. m. After the afternoon session a lunch will be served for all who may remain for the evening services. We ask all the missionary societies and churches who have not contributed towards the $100 for the rebuilding of Roger Williams University to help us raise the $21.70 which has not been collected. All who wish to attend should be at the transfer station at 2 o'clock. If you cannot get there at that hour take a North First street car and go to the end; there instructions will be given you.
